

Griswold history is published in area

The history of the Griswold family of Clinton Township, Wayne County, has just been published in the Nov. 19 issue of NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA. These Griswolds are descendants of the English Griswolds who were established at Solihull, Warwickshire, England, prior to 1400.

Contained in this history, written by S. Robert Powell, is a list of all of the descendants (dates of birth, death and marriage given) of John Griswold (1754-1843; a descendant of Michael Griswold, who was born in 1597 in England and subsequently settled in Wethersfield, Connecticut), and Elizabeth Crittenden (1761-1851). The couple was married in October, 1790 in Sandisfield, Massachusetts, and removed to Clinton Township around 1810.

John and Elizabeth (Crittenden) Griswold were the parents of six sons; John (b. July 9, 1792), Francis (b. November 14, 1793), Orrin (b. April 19, 1796), Sumner (b. April 20, 1798), Horace (b. November 15, 1800), and Sedate (b. October 1, 1802).

This seventy-five history contains, in addition, a typescript of the minutes of the Griswold Reunions that have thus far been held in Clinton Township -- from the first reunion March 22, 1906, to the reunion that was held Aug. 20, 1980. Photographs of those who attended these reunions in 1969, 1970, 1978, 1979 and 1980 are also given in this history, which was published by Sheffield Publications, Inc., Post Office Box 161, Carbondale.
